

NAME:

DATE:

Core Knowledge

DESCRIPTION Operational Safety (IS1)

OUTCOME The firefighter demonstrates knowledge of operational safety requirements.

KNOWLEDGE CHECK

Q1. What must the OIC Crew do to ensure the safety and effectiveness of the firefighting crew?

Q2. What must any NZFS personnel do if they identify a hazard?

Q3. Can civilians be used to assist with NZFS operations?

Q4. If civilians are used at NZFS incidents, what criteria must be followed before they are deployed?

Q5. Who is responsible for ensuring the crew are wearing seatbelts when their appliance is mobile?

Q6. Who is responsible for specifying the appropriate type of PPE for the incident being attended?

Q7. When must Breathing Apparatus be worn?

Q8. List the five situations when a Safety Officer must be appointed?

Q9. What is the emergency evacuation signal?

Q10. What must all personnel do on hearing the emergency evacuation signal?

Q11. When must a Hazard Control Officer be appointed?

Q12. Before handing a building back to the people responsible for the building what must the OIC do?

Q13. What procedure must be followed if a significant health hazard or potentially significant health hazard is identified?