

NAME:

DATE:

Operational Skills Maintenance

Core Knowledge

DESCRIPTION Working Near Civil Disturbances (IS9)

OUTCOME The firefighter demonstrates knowledge of the roles and responsibilities at civil disturbance incidents

RESOURCES Operational Instruction Working Near Civil Disturbances

KNOWLEDGE CHECK

Q1. Which other organisation(s) should be consulted when attending an incident involving a civil disturbance?

Q2. Approved Local procedures may be developed by the district, describe five of the 11 considerations that any local procedure should contain?

Q3. What is NOT the role of the NZFS at civil disturbance incidents?

Q4. During the readiness or pre-planning phase, what considerations need to be addressed during liaison with NZ Police?

Q5. When developing predetermined attendance protocols, what the four criteria are required when responding?

Q6. What actions need to be taken when a disturbance develops at an incident NZFS personnel are attending

Q7. What PPE should NZFS personnel wear when in attendance at civil disturbances?

Q8. What three considerations should be put in place, in regard to appliances and firefighting, to enable a quick withdrawal from an incident should the situation deteriorate

Q9. Can operational support staff be used for crowd control duties if requested by OIC Police?

Q10. List three significant hazards that may be faced by crews both responding to and at, civil disturbance incidents?